MORZINE AVORIAZ.
Portes du Soleil

A timeless getaway

Morzine is a beautiful Alpine village, offering visitors an authentic mountain experience. You'll find a rich history, heritage, traditional architecture and a warm welcome.

The village has kept its charm with numerous local boutiques, an architecture that's in harmony with nature, and traditional chalets rather than modern high rises. There's a unique French "savoir faire" where traditions have been passed on from generation to generation. The alpine meadows, lakes and stunning mountain scenery make Morzine the perfect destination for combining outdoor adventure, tradition, and relaxation.

Morzine is a regional leader for green initiatives and eco travel, with local businesses, event organisers and tourism providers committed to reducing emissions and working towards a more sustainable way of life.

As travel reopens, more than ever we want to get away from busy city life and escape the daily grind. Morzine provides the perfect antidote, with nights in secluded cabins and new treetop hideouts on offer, and plenty of 'back to nature activities', think foraging hikes and whitewater adrenaline experiences!

There's also new accommodation on offer, restaurants are adapting to offer click and collect (including easy to use home raclette & fondue kits), and families are once again placed centre stage with a plethora of new activities.

The village

-  25,000 Tourist beds
-  45 bars & restaurants
-  41 hotels
-  80: Shops & service providers
-  3,000: Number of year round residents
-  1,000 m: Village altitude

Safety Measures

Morzine's local authorities have been working hard with accommodation owners, restaurants, bars, and activity providers, to ensure that all the necessary health and safety measures will be in place this summer. Holidaymakers will be able to relax and unwind, while making the most of the vast Portes du Soleil region, with its wide-open spaces and fresh mountain air.

This winter Morzine was awarded the 'SafeGuard' label by the Bureau Veritas France. The label provides a guarantee that the resort respects the protective sanitary protocols put in place by the national authorities and those recommended by the World Health Organisation, while also ensuring appropriate training for resort workers.

Léo Dutruel Young entrepreneur and hockey player

In January 2019 Léo decided to fulfil his dream and create his own company, Pulse Activity. Offering heart-racing activities that can be adapted to all seasons, holidaymakers can enjoy Bubble football, snowskating, snooker golf, laser biathlon or mini-golf with a hockey stick and puck. For the most part, he works with local tourist boards and the town halls of Morzine and Montriond to help visitors make the most of these fun pastimes. When Léo is not running Pulse Activity, he can be seen on the ice as a semi-professional hockey player for Les Pingouins of Morzine, which he has been doing for two years. His passion for ice hockey was ignited at the tender age of three on the village ice rink.

Meet the locals

Sébastien Bron Goat farmer and guide

A mountain lover from his earliest years, it was natural for Sébastien to become a ski instructor and high mountain guide. He loves sharing his alpine stories with his clients and explaining how people live here. When he is not out in the mountains, he cares for his goats. For many years his parents worked the meadows in the Morzine area so it was completely natural for him and his partner, Anna, to take over the family goat farm. Using traditional methods, it's a job that allows him to share his passion and knowledge with his children, as well as with his clients. Holidaymakers can meet Sébastien at Ardoisières goat farm with its 60 resident goats and cheese making demonstrations.

For info: Produce available directly from the farm and a selection of Morzine establishments. He also offers tours.

Alice Passaquin-Marullaz The mountain at the end of her fingers

When visiting family in the Valais region of Switzerland, Alice became interested in the traditional Swiss craft of paper cutting. She has now been creating works for over 20 years and it has become her passion and career. The artform demands meticulous skill and patience, with each piece requiring a minimum of 10 hours of work. She gets her inspiration from her walks in the mountains and from closely observing nature and the flora and fauna. She is also inspired by her previous work as a Morzine ski instructor.

For info: Her work is on display in her shop "Les petits papiers d'Alice" in the village centre.

Dave Branfield A micro-brewery with a huge range of flavours

Having arrived in Morzine in 2011 and discovering there was no beer being brewed in the resort, Dave started brewing at home and then began selling his first bottles of beer in a restaurant in Montriond in 2014. The choice of the name Ibx is no coincidence either - not only is it short and easy to pronounce in many languages, it is also the family name of the wild goat. Today his range comprises four year-round beers plus summer and winter beers, all with unique flavours born of the combination of malt and local spring water from Morzine. Throughout the seasons, he offers other even more explosively flavoured limited availability beers.

For info: Nowadays, his beer is available in many local establishments and directly from his own shop.

Morzine goes green

- new - Flocon Vert

Morzine has launched a bid to attain the Flocon Vert label. The accolade, which is awarded by the European organisation Mountain Riders, recognises destinations that demonstrate a commitment to a sustainable development policy. The label is issued based on compliance with 20 criteria divided into four themes: local economy, social & cultural, governance & destination, and environment & natural resources. Local businesses, the Tourist Office and Town hall are all working to reduce the environmental impact caused by residents, visitors and businesses in the resort. Their goal is to encourage everyone to get involved, by providing all the information needed to help people be greener and to make environmentally friendly options more accessible.

More info: <https://en.morzine-avoriaz.com/environmental-responsibility.html>

At the heart of Morzine's plans are local wildlife and nature.

- To protect birds, all the cables on lifts are being equipped with 'visualisers' every 5m, meaning fewer bird collisions.
- €20000 has been invested in 2 protected areas for black grouse.
- In collaboration with the ONF (Forestry commission): for every tree that is cut down on the ski area, another is planted, ensuring local pines, larch and spruce remain abundant.
- An awareness campaign around the problem of rubbish abandoned in the mountains will be put into place on the lifts.

- new -

Learn about mountain traditions and wildlife!

Morzine believes that in order to protect our environment; we must first better understand it! This summer a new informative wildlife trail will be put into place on the Nyon area: an easy hour long walk with lots of information panels about the local wildlife. Situated next to this trail, the Pointe de Nyon restaurant will have a new pastoral concept, with demonstrations on the work of mountain shepherds.

It's easy to add on a visit to the brand new "Pas de l'Aigle": a viewing platform at over 2000 metres altitude with a 350m vertical drop below, to see the immensity of the mountains and understand the need to protect our wild spaces!

Trail des Hauts Forts: a local eco-friendly trail 7th August 2021

The Trail des Hauts-Forts was one of the few races able to take place in 2020. A tough route with lots of climbing, plus exposed technical sections, it was made even tougher in 2020 by having to limit feed stations to water only for this 14th edition.

For 2021, an environmental charter has been put into place to ensure a greener event and to reduce waste. It will continue to evolve, but always with the aim of limiting the impact of the event on the environment.

The main focus is the use of local producers for all needs, to both limit effects of transport and to support the local economy. This means local suppliers for feed stations, rescue services, technical needs, partners...

Contact: Bruno Robinet : trail@morzine-avoriaz.com • www.traildeshautsforts.com

Numerous local businesses have introduced sustainable initiatives

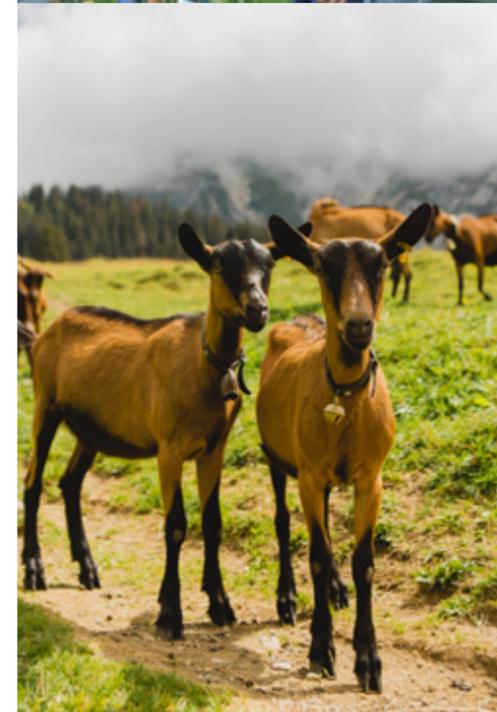

Several businesses use locally sourced produce and endeavor to work with regional suppliers. Increasingly, many are choosing to make their own products, in a bid to further reduce their environmental impact.

93% of hotels and restaurants use eco-friendly cleaning products.

Some go even further in their efforts and offer clients organic and/or eco-friendly toiletries etc. Many are working to reduce packing using refillable toiletries.

The new café Au P'tit Casse-Croûte also offers a reduction to anyone bringing their own takeaway containers or cups.

Morzine. MTB capital

Santa Cruz Partnership

Top American brand Santa Cruz Bicycles chose Morzine for its first European HQ in 2016 with an 80m2 showroom and has since gone on to help develop local trails and regularly host biking events in the village. The company picked Morzine because of its world class MTB offering and its status as the must-ride destination in Europe, with riders from across the world flocking to the resort, and now the Santa Cruz Syndicate race team is also based here in summer. If you visit, don't miss the opportunity to see Greg Minaar's 2013 World Championship winning bike. Greg, who has a second home in Morzine, is the only male racer with more than 20 DH world cup victories and 3 world championship victories. He's often found on his favourite Pléney trails with the coach Steve Peat (who has 53 world cup podiums to his name!), and their team mate Luca Shaw.

Thanks to the work by the resort and Santa Cruz Bicycles, in 2020 Morzine was voted the best Bike Park in Europe and eighth in the world by the readers of Vital MTB, one of the biggest American MTB websites.

Many restaurateurs got busy during lockdown so that they could offer takeaway dishes and deliveries, which they will continue to offer this summer.

Le Clin d'œil and La Grange offer raclette kits with equipment on loan - a simple way to enjoy a local speciality.

Le Bec Jaune and Le Clin d'œil have created websites to place orders quickly and efficiently.

La Chamade offers a dish of the day to take away or a menu including dessert, all home-cooked with a selection of wines and beers available to wash it all down. The menu for the following day is posted at 8 pm every evening on their social media channels along with a wine pairing.

Every Sunday, La Dez'Alp offers a delicatessen formula.

Serviced chalet companies AliKats and Pure Morzine offer a «semi-catered» option - a «Covid-safe» solution ideal for groups who want to stay in their chalet with a minimum of contact and get together around the dinner table.
